A moving checklist.

A week-by-week guide so nothing falls through the cracks.

A Moving Checklist

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

A calmer move starts here.

Every checkbox below is a real lesson from over 10,000 moves. Print it, stick it on the fridge, and tick boxes as you go. If anything confuses you — text us. That's literally what we're here for.

01

6 WEEKS OUT

Plan the big picture.

Six weeks out is when good moves get organized.
Bad ones get organized in week one.

- ☐ Get 2–3 written quotes (not phone estimates — get them in writing).
- ☐ Lock in your moving date and confirm building elevator times for both addresses.
- ☐ Start a folder (digital or paper) for receipts, contracts, and floorplans.
- ☐ Take photos and a video walk-through of every room — proof of condition.
- ☐ Measure doorways, stairwells, and tight turns for large furniture.
- ☐ Notify your landlord in writing if you're renting.

02

4 WEEKS OUT

Declutter and prep.

You pay to move every box. The less you move, the cheaper and faster the day.

- ☐ Donate, sell, or toss anything you won't use in your new home.
- ☐ Order packing supplies, or ask us about our packing service.
- ☐ Use up perishable food and cleaning supplies you can't transport.
- ☐ Schedule disconnect/connect dates: internet, hydro, gas, water.
- ☐ Book elevator reservations at both buildings (most condos need 2–4 weeks notice).
- ☐ If moving long-distance, schedule a vehicle service check.

03

2 WEEKS OUT

Pack the non-essentials.

Two weeks out is packing season. Start with what you don't use daily.

- ☐ Begin packing rooms you use least: guest room, storage, off-season clothing.
- ☐ Label every box on the TOP and ONE SIDE: room + contents.
- ☐ Update your address: bank, CRA, employer, subscriptions, driver's licence.
- ☐ Refill prescriptions so you're not searching for a pharmacy on day one.
- ☐ Confirm pet/childcare for moving day — single best move-day decision.
- ☐ Use up frozen food and run down your fridge.

04

1 WEEK OUT

Final stretch.

The week before is for finishing — not starting. If you haven't packed a room yet, prioritize it now.

- ☐ Pack a 'first-night' box: bedding, toiletries, chargers, change of clothes.
- ☐ Disassemble what you can — keep all hardware in labelled ziplock bags.
- ☐ Withdraw cash for tips ($20–$40 per mover for great service — never required).
- ☐ Defrost and clean out the freezer 24 hours before move day.
- ☐ Confirm arrival window with your Moving Papa coordinator.
- ☐ Charge everything: phones, laptops, power tools, vacuum.

05

MOVE DAY

The big day.

Today's the day. Trust your prep, trust the crew, and stay out of the way.

- ☐ Be ready 30 minutes before your arrival window — coffee on, walkthrough done.
- ☐ Keep valuables, ID, and important documents with YOU.
- ☐ Walk the lead mover through the home: fragile items, what stays, what goes first.
- ☐ Leave one full roll of toilet paper, paper towels, and hand soap in the bathroom.
- ☐ Final empty-room walk-through: closets, cabinets, behind doors, the dryer.
- ☐ At the new home, direct boxes to the right room as they come in.
- ☐ Sign the inventory and final invoice only after a walk-through with the crew lead.

WHY THIS LIST WORKS

It's the version we wish every customer used.

We've moved over 10,000 households across Toronto and Vancouver. The customers with the smoothest, fastest, lowest-stress moves all do roughly the same things — the items in this guide. The ones who skip the prep usually pay more, because the move takes longer. There's no secret.
